UOC Lib approach

 Systematic monitoring of technological progress and thorough organization and exploitation of digital information sources (ejournals, databases, digital library, IR) Constant effort for the successful combination of traditional and modern sources of information

Information & Communication Technology

Pilot attempt to utilize ICT / digital tools in IL courses

At Heraklion Library

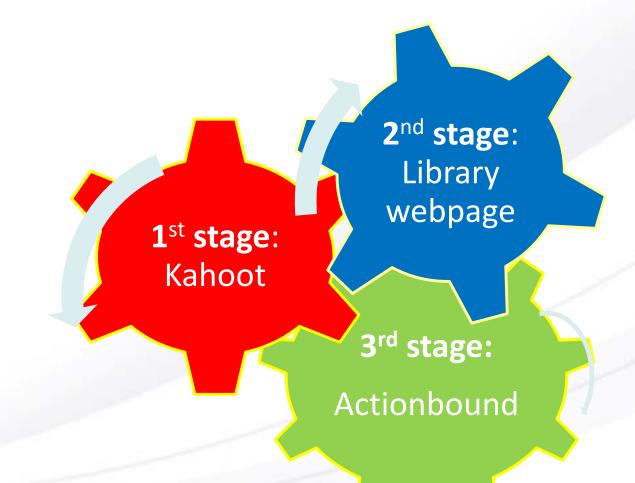

Why Employ digital tools?

- They can engage all the learners to participate in person at the same time or online whenever, wherever (flexibility/independency)
- They can combine learning with entertainment (gamification)
- Graphics, sound and images can consolidate learners' memory (augmented/ virtual reality games)
- They can encourage learners to develop soft skills (critical thinking, collaboration, creativity, decision making ect)

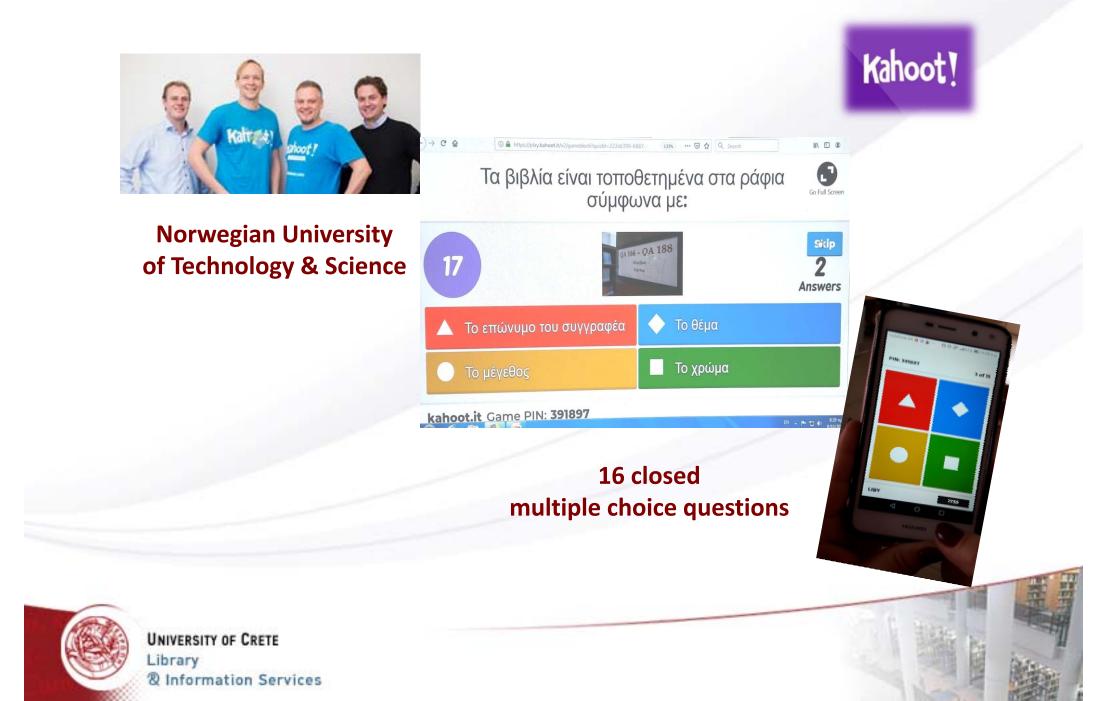

Stages of the IL courses
